Don't worry; there will be plenty of drink options beyond the paired beers that go with each of four stations: Cantina Mexicana, Seafood Shanty, Hofbrauhaus, and Sake. See if you can guess the menu items at each! Early in the evening, we expect a "fly-by" from another Harvard a capella group, warming us up for our third reason to come: special music guest "Professor DJ" (really! a legitimate BU professor and close friend of classmate Russ Gershon) who will be spinning VINYL from "back in the day". Requests welcomed!
11:30 PM	Nightcap Dunster House Courtyard A continuation of the above, under the stars.

Harvard and Radcliffe Class of 1981 35th Reunion Schedule: May 25–29, 2016

5:15 -6:00 PM	Tales from Harvard in Hollywood Queen's Head Pub (cash bar) Since leaving Cambridge, a handful of stubborn '81ers have sought to make a name for themselves pushing boulders up Hollywood's hills – writing, directing, and producing thousands of hours of TV shows and motion pictures, and winning awards – or simply collecting scars and war stories – in the process. Join a few jetlagged veterans who will regale us with stories of past adventures and coming attractions.
7:00-11:30 PM	Class Dinner and Dancing Annenberg Hall Join us for a Latin themed evening of food and music. Chorizo turnovers, chicken empanadas, churrasco-rubbed tenderloin, chipotle sweet potatoes, shrimp ceviche, and crispy cinnamon churros with chocolate sauce, all served among many other delectables. While reunioneing and eating, our own Russ Gershon, and his band Lookie Lookie will perform a couple of sets. Lookie Lookie is a spin-off of the Latin-pop movement of the early '90 mixing Latin elements with a much more approachable/danceable groove for mainstream consumption. Let's eat it up!
10:30 PM-1:00 AM	Nightcap Dunster House, Grill Room As if you need more? We've got you covered if you need a down-tempo scene to carry on those conversations.
